Dear Exhibitor:

Preparations are under way for the 2012 Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association Convention to be held at the Waco Convention Center, January 12, 13, and 14, 2012. Enclosed is the registration form which should be completed and returned to me (with payment) no later than November 28, 2011. Any booth not reserved by this date will be given away on a first come first serve basis. To reserve the same booth as last year, we need your information sheet, as well as payment, by November 28, 2011. We have a waiting list to get into our show therefore we must stick by this date for planning purposes. When I receive your payment you will then receive confirmation from me via e-mail. At this point you will receive convention information from the convention planning company.

There will be limited amounts of space for pitching machines against the back wall like has been in the past, however anyone that reserves this space must have pitching machines and be demonstrating otherwise the space is wasted. If you are not actually throwing balls out of a machine, you will be expected to purchase a 10 X 10 space like everyone else. If you are a new exhibitor, you should call before you try and reserve pitching machine space.

The convention is growing and getting better and better thanks to people like yourself. Thanks for joining us as we continue to grow.

Attention: Once the show starts at 4:00 on Thursday, exhibitors will not be allowed to exit the convention until Saturday when the convention is over. We appreciate your help with this matter.

Setup time for all exhibitors:

Thursday, January 12, 12 :30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Show days:

Thursday January 12, 4:00 - 7:00

Friday, January 13, from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Saturday, January 14, from 8:30 a.m.-12 noon

If you have any question please contact me as soon as possible at (512) 923-0074. We look forward to seeing you in Waco.

Sincerely,

Dane Saucier
